

World On Fire

Corrosion of Conformity

Never bitched never moaned never gave
The king the time
Never lied never cried never gave the queen a dime
Still it seemed to me we were losing all the time

But underneath we can breathe and we're standing
On our own never known never know
Running while your world's on fire
Back to rob you blind

Blistered sins consume the liar all the time
Never break never crack never turned into a stone
Never crawl never fall never bow beneath the throne
Never could believe because it was never shown

But underneath we can breathe and were standing
On our own never known never know
Now your running while your world's on fire
Back to rob you blind

Blistered sins consume the liar all the time
A shattered god once made of stone
Took me aside took me aside and made me whole
I once was blind but now I see

The blistered walls in front of me!
Never breathe never sang never call
Never died never flied never fall
Never break never bleed never rest

On our own we control everlast
Running while your world's on fire
Back to rob you blind
Blistered sins consume the liar all the time
