

Missing You Fierce

Cory Branam

At least that last sip of whiskey was warm and wet
As good a goodnight as I'm gonna get
I've been missing you woman and wishing you here
Been missing you something fierce
Been riding that late night bus where we got scandalous
Through the jaws of Los Angeles
Into the wild blue wanderlust
Been riding it just because
The strobe lights flared on
You were there and gone

You said "always" then you just left
You left hallways in my footsteps
And this radio nothingness coming in clear
Has got me missing you something fierce
I've got this new drink you helped me stumble upon
Take the empty glass once the whiskey is gone
Garnish with fire & chase with tears
Cheers
Here's to you
Cheers
Missing you fierce
