

Guilty

Cory Marks

Waking up in my boots with a pounding in my head
Blame it all on my roots or the stranger in my bed
I don't try to hide this life of mine
I'm doing time, but I'm running wild and free

Been known to throw a fist, ain't no back down in me
I'll take it on the chin but I land on my feet
And you better bet I never sweat, ain't no BS
You getting what you see

Yeah, I drink more than I'm sober
Party's never over
Grow up when I'm older
If it don't kill me
I mean it if I said it
Probably won't regret it
If hell is where I'm headed
Then Lord forgive me
If living my life is a crime
Then I'm guilty

You can tell the judge and jury, I'll gladly take the blame
If they think they can hold me down
Gonna need some stronger chains
Ain't no quit, don't take no shit
I'll take a hit
Yeah, this one's on me

This one's on me

Yeah, I drink more than I'm sober
Party's never over
Grow up when I'm older
If it don't kill me
I mean it if I said it
Probably won't regret it
If hell is where I'm headed
Then Lord forgive me
If living my life is a crime
Then I'm guilty

Can't lock me up, lock me up
Can't lock me up
Can't lock me up, lock me up
Can't lock me up

I drink more than I'm sober
Party's never over
Grow up when I'm older

Are you with me

I drink more than I'm sober
Party's never over
Grow up when I'm older
If it don't kill me
I mean it if I said it

Probably won't regret it
Then Lord forgive me
Then I'm guilty

I'm guilty
