

Someone I Hate

Cory Marks

Woke up in the morning, half my boots still on Radio's playing shook me all night long
The last of the Jack is on the floor
Red dress still hangin' on the door

Still drunk, army crawling out of bed
Shut up, can't shake this pounding head
Put up with the same old shit again
Till you leave for good or you leave me dead

When I look in the mirror, see the morning light
I don't wanna look me in the eye
Hungover, hard up, double take
Make me into someone I
Wish I never met in the first place
Drag me to heaven and hell I'll pay
What's left of me is yours to take
Make me into someone I hate

(Make me into someone I hate)

You're the kinda high I'll never top
The kinda edge worth steppin' off
When it comes to the bottom, yeah you're the rock
Drag me down, hell all you want

When I look in the mirror, see the morning light
I don't wanna look me in the eye
Hungover, hard up, double take
Make me into someone I
Wish I never met in the first place
Drag me to heaven and hell I'll pay
What's left of me is yours to take
Make me into someone I hate
I hate, I hate
(Make me into someone I hate)

Get up on the bars, sing karaoke
Put up with the fact that you don't love me
The cost of you, it don't come cheap
Enough's enough, I'm in too deep

I look in the mirror, see the morning light
I don't wanna look me in the eye
Hungover, hard up, double take
Make me into someone I
Wish I never met in the first place
Drag me to heaven and hell I'll pay
What's left of me is yours to take
Make me into someone I hate
I hate, I hate
Make me into someone I hate
