Nothing Left To Hide

Cory Morrow

I wanna feel this way forever and a day
I wanna feel this way and I don't want it to change
Can you help me son
I've got a problem to fulfill
I've got a demon inside me
And he won't let me stand still
It won't be long now
There won't be nothing left to hide

I'm taking classes
I learn to speak and look tall
Yeah but nobody here has learned to read the writing on the wal l
And I take my chances and I'm gonna gamble with my heart
And if I lose I'll just wish upon a different star
Somewhere down the line I lost my way
And hurt my pride
Won't be long now

They talk in circles
Don't even understand themselves
Yeah but they got an offer
And I got a stack of unpaid billls
And I'm on a highway
Somewhere south of your hometown
And whistles are blowin' and ghosts are runnin' on the ground
Somewhere down the line I lost my way
And there's nobody here left to blame
Except me and this face that I can't hide
Won't be long now
Won't be long now

I wanna feel this way forever and a day
