

Broken

Cory Wells

Another year spent wasting time
And I feel so dead now but that's alright
I can't escape what's been on my mind
I'm gonna run far away
I've got nothing to say to you

I've got nothing left to lose
I have nothing

Cause you broke me in two
Yeah you broke me in two

Obsessing over where I should go
There's no way out now just through I know
This pain will fade in time I hope
I can't just hide my distaste
I've got so much to say to you

And I've got nothing left to lose
I have nothing

Cause you broke me in two
Yeah you broke me in two

Try to forget all the love I felt
And I'd rather die now than live through this hell
I see the guilt in your face
I've got nothing to feel for you

Cause you broke me in two
Yeah you broke me in two

You broke me in two
Yeah you broke me in two
