

Empty

Cory Wells

I've been asleep so long
I'm barely breathing
And your voice is gone
It's like silent screaming
Tried to bite my tongue
Now I'm bleeding out one more song
About the death of me
Now I see so clearly

I know my funeral's next weekend but
If you've got plans I'll be understanding cause

Our glass was empty but it seemed full to me
It only took 10 years to see what you see
So let's pretend the worst was only a dream
Cause I don't wanna face what's coming
If it was only that easy

I picked you up outside
With your words still repeating
Are the purple lights worth all the drinking?
But I know I'm wrong
I've been your enemy far too long
Stuck in a memory
Now I see so clearly

I know my funeral's tomorrow but
If you've got plans I'll be understanding cause

Our glass was empty but it seemed full to me
It only took 10 years to see what you see
So let's pretend the worst was only a dream
Cause I don't wanna face what's coming
If it was only that easy
If it was only that easy

So sick of the lying sick of the crying
I can't forgive myself for watching us burn
So fuck all the fighting the shit we've been hiding
I still remember us the way that we were
The way that we were

Our glass was empty but it seemed full to me
It only took 10 years to see what you see
So let's pretend the worst was only a dream
Cause I don't wanna face what's coming
No, I don't wanna face what's coming
If it was only that easy
