

Alone

Cosmic Gate

Can't breathe cause you're like a wave crashing down on me
You leave and every single step takes apart of me
Your love is a mark on my history
When you leave every single step takes apart of me

Slow down, can you feel this place here is holy ground?
Don't know who I'm gonna be if you're not around
Your love is the best that I ever found
Don't know who I'm gonna be if you're not around

I don't wanna meet somebody new
I'm not gonna start getting over you
If you won't take me home I'll be alone, be alone
Cause you're the only one that's on my mind
And other things are a waste of time
If you won't take me home I'll be alone, be alone
