

Run Away

Cosmic Gate

You have been afraid
Now it's time to face the light
It's the reason you want
The reason you want to be alive

You have been asleep
Now it's time to wake inside
You're hearing the call
The call that you try to deny
(The call that you try to deny)

Come
If you wanna run away with me
Tonight tonight
And come
If you wanna see what I can see
Tonight tonight

Meet me on the place, the place where both our worlds collide
The place with no fear, the place where no hate can reside
When you're here you're safe in my arms, you cannot hide
The truth of your heart, the one that you are you can't deny
(The one that you are you can't deny)

Come
If you wanna run away with me
Tonight tonight
And come
If you wanna see what I can see
Tonight tonight
