

Awful Dawn

Cosmo Pyke

An awful dawn should be waiting there
In the forefront of my thoughts
Should be waiting there
I feel no fear
Your tomorrow is never short

An awful dawn should be waiting there
In the forefront of my thoughts
Should be waiting there
I feel no fear
Tomorrow was never meant to be for

You know, I wish I had a lawyer
Who could get me out to you
And I would call him on my telephone
And I'd thank him with news, no

By the time you've heard this
I'm renovating, renovating furnace
And I'll wake you up so early, and I'll Tell you with news

An awful dawn should be waiting there
In the forefront of my thoughts
Should be waiting there
I feel no fear
Your tomorrow is never short
