

Over & Over

Cosmo Pyke

Yes, I will board that train
I will follow over you
Yes, I will board that train
I will follow over you
She said I was born insane
I thought I was alright with you, yeah
Now, look

Guess who rolled by my train?
I felt like a fighter for you, yeah

I'm gonna ride that line so far
As if I was a movie star
Guess who I saw today, my dear?
My life was so unsure
Rescued by an awful dawn
Now they're cast light die
People pushing past my pain
One hand on the seal like my old man
I thought I lost my way
But what's it to be sane?
Please don't go out of your way, I'm not Tryna reign you in, I'm just
Washing away our sins, oh

I will follow over you
Over and over you, yeah

Yes, I will board that train
I will follow over you
Yes, I will board that train
I will follow over, ohh, yeah
She said I was born insane
I thought I was alright with you, yeah

Guess who rolled by my train?
I felt like a fighter for you, yeah

Plenty of preoccupations but all impeccably plain
This planet of ours, she said it was worth it
I heard there was life on Mars
The cars, they keep driving by
I rode the line right through your door
I've had loads of weird ideas before
But now I'm, yeah, unsure
How many times would I ride that line to you?
On this moving car, I found solace
And a thousand photographs of mine and yours
Then forgot what I saw
But I don't know what I was taking myself so
Seriously for, unsure

Yes, I will board that train
I will follow over
Over and over you, yeah, you
I will board that train
I will follow over

She said life was born insane
I thought I was cool
Guess who rolled by my train?
Not you, yeah
Guess who I saw today, my dear
I saw you

Yes, I will board that train
I will follow over you
Over and over you, yeah
