

Down for You

Cosmo's Midnight

You said we'd just drop by
But I wasn't invited
You'd already decided
That I was coming too

I can't stand all these people
All trying to please you
They don't even see you
The way I do

2 AM
Haven't left
No one cares
Just me, I guess
But I can't leave you

I wasn't gonna say nothing
But I'm about to break something
How you gonna take all of my time

You know that I hate this place
But if you wanna stay I do too
We'll let the night turn to day
Yeah, I'm down either way
Cause I'm so down for you

Yeah I can't find the patience
For awkward conversations
And all of these blank faces

I should leave
I haven't yet
But when you smile
I just forget
But I can stay a while I guess

I wasn't gonna say nothing
But I'm about to break something
How you gonna take all of my time

You know that I hate this place
But if you wanna stay I do too
We'll let the night turn to day
Yeah, I'm down either way
Cause I'm so down for you

You know that I hate this place
But if you wanna stay I do too
We'll let the night turn to day
Yeah, I'm down either way
Cause I'm so down for you

You know that I hate this place
But if you wanna stay I do too
We'll let the night turn to day
Yeah, I'm down either way
Cause I'm so down for you

I 'm so down for you
So down for you
For you

I 'm so down for you
For you
For you
