Snare

Cosmo's Midnight

Walking in the shadow of a shadow
Even when I'm running out of air
I'll always be there for you
I'll always be there for you, yeah
Stuck inside an opposite attraction
Keeping all the secrets still I swear
I'll always be there for you, yeah
I'll always be there for you

You caught me in your snare
Of confusion, of delusion
You caught me in your snare
Of confusion, of delusion
You caught me in your snare

I was dreaming deeper now I'm shallow
But I like the stream until it tears
I'll always be there for you
I'll always be there for you, yeah
Try and let you go but still I suffer
It's a danger I could never dare
So I'll always be there for you
I'll always be there for you

You caught me in your snare
Of confusion, of delusion
You caught me in your snare
Of confusion, of delusion
You caught me in your snare
Of confusion, of delusion
You caught me in your snare
Of confusion, of delusion
You caught me in your snare
