Cosmo's Midnight

The moment that disappears
Shake away my feelings for you

Ah, the moment that disappears
Shake away my feelings for you
Ah, thinking of yesteryear
And all the things you wouldn't do

I'm gonna take my time and figure you out
I'm gonna take my time and figure you out

I gotta get up, I'm shaking you off
Said, baby, we let go but never enough
I, I gotta get up, I'm shaking you off
Said, baby, we let go but never enough
I, I gotta get up

Ah, the moment that disappears
Shake away my feelings for you
Ah, I'm thinking of me and you
And all the things you wouldn't do

I'm gonna take my time and figure you out
I'm gonna take my time and figure you out

I gotta get up, I'm shaking you off
Said, baby, we let go but never enough
I, I gotta get up, I'm shaking you off
Said, baby, we let go but never enough
I, I gotta get up

I wish we lost control
Fear of falling
Keep on moving slow
Keep on running
I'm thinking 'bout the last time
Drinking out my past life
Didn't I see you coming?

I gotta get up, I'm shaking you off
Said, baby, we let go but never enough
I gotta get up, I'm shaking you off
Said, baby, we let go but never enough
I, I gotta get up

I gotta get up, I'm shaking you off
Said, baby, we let go but never enough
I, I gotta get up, I'm shaking you off
Said, baby, we let go but never enough

I, I gotta get up, I'm shaking you off
Said, baby, we let go but never enough
I, I gotta get up, I'm shaking you off
Said, baby, we let go but never enough
I, I gotta get up
