

Lichens

Cosmo Sheldrake

What never dies it can't get old
Listen loud and listen bold
What never comes can't be foretold
Listen hot and listen cold

What never lives will never mould
Listen loud and listen bold
What was once one is now three-fold
Listen hot and listen cold

Little lichen never lonesome
Always two maybe three
Little lichen never lonesome
Living there always we
Little lichen never lonesome
Always two maybe three
Little lichen never lonesome
Living there always we
