Run

Cosmo Sheldrake

```
I'll run away
I ran away
I'll run away again
And then
I'll come back home

I tried to stay
I tried to say
I'll try again and then I'll be alone
I tried again
To make amends
To clear the way
To blink and say the words again

I'm over the walls
Out the door
On my way
Because the wind won't wait for me
```
