

(Stop it!)
Feel good since Friday
I might just fuck it up
Hold you tongue let's call it hot day
Blink twice if you hear me
I'm just heading to hell then I'll pretend that I was busy

It's the life that I live up
Before you give up let me hold you tight
Let me look at you before everything goes down

You can run but you can't hide
You can run but you can't hide
You can run but you can't hide
You can run but

Get to know about me
Since I don't talk too much silence richer than you bitch
Coucou Chloe
I'm calm still get money
I don't care about your man
You both be looking funny
Want me for the main but I'll wait for the dessert
Yea I just got here pouring champagne in a cup
Hmmm guess who's back? Pretty little face never left
Actually

Not good since Saturday
Did I just fuck it up?
Not good since Saturday
I don't care

It's the life that I live up
Before you give up let me hold you tight
Let me look at you before everything goes down

You can run but you can't hide
You can run but you can't hide
You can run but you can't hide
You can run

Sky's the limit but you just stand in line
I don't care where I fit where I fit where I fit
Sky's the limit but you just stand in line
I don't care where I fit where I fit where I fit
I don't care where I fit where I fit where I fit
I don't care where I fit where I fit where I fit
I don't care where I fit where I fit where I fit
I don't care where I fit where I fit where I fit
