

NEVER

Coucou Chloe

Close your eyes and you'll see me
Give me your hand and you'll feel me
You'll never be alone
Close your eyes and you'll see me
Give me your hand and you'll feel me
You'll never be alone

Because it's hard to say goodbye
All the things that I've done I wonder why
And if this is true that life sings about you

You'll never be alone
You'll never be alone
You'll never be alone
You'll never be alone
You'll never be alone
You'll never be alone
You'll never be alone

Close your eyes and you'll see me
Give me your hand and you'll feel me
You'll never be alone (because I'm still here with you)

Time goes by and I don't remain the same
It goes down my throat but I don't forget who I am
If memories is all we have then I'll keep yours because it's mine
Does it make me you, just for a time?
Do I breathe for you, this air that's mine?
Does it make me you, just for a time?
So it makes you stay right where I am

Because it's hard to say goodbye
All the things that I've done I wonder why
And if this is true that life sings about you
You'll never be alone

You'll never be alone
You'll never be alone
You'll never be alone
You'll never be alone
You'll never be alone
You'll never be alone
