

The Dance

Count Raven

The road is so long
And I am so alone
The wind blows outside
It feels like suicide, so come on

This is the same old song
I cannot go but wrong
I'm just a simple man
Who tries to understand, so come on

The first moth of summer's here
Again you disappear
And later the same noon
I'm howling at the moon, so come on

Still I hear you say
That life is quite okay
Still I'm the only one
Still I'm the lonely one, so come on
