

Elevator Boots

Counting Crows

Bobby was a kid from round the town
Kicks pumped up and head held down
Underwater more than he was up
He dreamed submarines in bottle green
Imaginary flight machines
But in blue jean flares he bubbled like a 7up

Everybody wants to know you
When you're the only one to know
Shoot it up until you feel alive then play one more show

Plug into the buzz and shake it 'til it turns around
(And you can't stop feeling)
The Paul Smith suits and the elevator boots astound
(And you can't help healing)
They want you and you want to
With their lips on fire and your head unscrewed
But it's time to whip another change and hit one more town

Bobby doesn't know her name
He holds on tightly just the same
Sometimes one more night is all you need
I met Alice near the Alamo
One summer in San Antonio
I remember her
I don't remember me

Everybody wants to know you
When you're the only one to know
Anything to feel alive and play one more show

Plug into the buzz and shake it 'til it turns around
(And you can't stop feeling)
The Paul Smith suits and the elevator boots astound
(And you can't help healing)
They want you and you want to
With their hips on fire and your head unglued
Til it's time to whip another change and hit one more town

Alice knows the secret
And she could tell you now
If you want to
Cuz they want you
Do you want to?

I snake & sparkle, pant & glide
But it's hard to feel and I can't get high
And I don't always understand how to smile
Kids get sick of bein' bottled up
It drags you down until you throw it up
Get out of the house, and take a ride on the radio dial

Everybody wants to know you
When you're the only one to know
Everything that feels alive is in one more show

Plug into the buzz and shake it 'til it turns around

(And you can't stop feeling)
The Paul Smith suits and the elevator boots astound
(And you can't help healing)
They want you and you want to
Cuz the kid's so clean with his soul shampoo'd
And it's time to whip another change and hit one more town
Yeah, it's time to whip another change and hit one more town
