

Sing, Sing, Sing

Country Joe and the Fish

Open my eyes, I've been dreaming
Open my eyes, I've been dreaming
After all this time it seems so strange
I woke up today and changed my way of living.

Sing, sing, sing
Sing, sing, sing
Sing me a love song
Sing me a love song.

Last night while lying in our bed was you who turned to me and said:

'Is it really me you love? Tell me what you're thinking of'
'Are you thinking thoughts of loving me?'.

'My love for you is something warm like silver drops of laughter'

'Giving life and taking form, dreaming dreams of unborn'
'Children by our side'.

Open my mind, I've been sleeping
Open my mind, I've been sleeping
After all this time it seems so strange
I woke up today and changed my way of living.

Sing, sing, sing (sing, sing, sing)
Sing, sing, sing (sing me a love song)
Sing, sing, sing (sing me a love song)
Sing, sing, sing (sing me a love song)
