

Goodbye To Giving Up

Courage My Love

Tonight I'm cutting ties
cracked lips and bloodshot eyes,
I've been compromised,
knocked down, but I'm still alive.
Tonight I'm letting go,
I've given up on my last hope but I'll stay afloat
because you feel like forever ago
Maybe one day we'll find home.

Goodbye, say goodbye to giving up.
Just keep your head up in the clouds
this time I'll survive and laugh it off.
Just hold your breath and don't look down.

I can't believe I'm here again,
burning bridges with all my friends.
Well I can't pretend that I've never won in the end.
I'm sick of this dead end town where everyone just brings me down.
Well it's over now,
this time I'll turn it around.
Maybe one day I'll let go.

Goodbye, say goodbye to giving up.
Just keep your head up in the clouds
this time I'll survive and laugh it off.
Just hold your breath and don't look down.
