

The World Smiles

Court Yard Hounds

We go on pretending
The whole world is ending
We follow the tragic and forgot the magic I'm done yeah, I'm through with Singin' the blues and
I'm learning the best things in life are free

And we're all crazy
But that don't phase me
Even in the dark
Just wait and see...

The world smiles
The world smiles at me
If I believe in the good stuff and open my eyes up
The world smiles

I've been there, the sadness
The breakdowns, the madness,
The lesson in the story that goes on before me

Sometimes I don't know
When to fight and when to let it go
I won't let the question bring me down

A little baby
What's she gonna be
She may have all the answers
Wait and see

The world smiles
All the world smiles at me
If I believe in the good stuff and open my eyes up
The world smiles

Oh, call me crazy
But that don't phase me
Even in the dark
Just wait and see...

The world smiles
The world smiles at me
If I believe in the good stuff and open my eyes up
The world smiles
If I believe in the good stuff and open my eyes up
The world smiles
