

The Grand Finale

Courtney Jaye

Born a valentine babe
Shadows of a new age
From the very first day
A conscience wide awake

Spring began the seance
Summer came the chaos
Saints were going crazy
I dared the Gods to take me

Every sound is thunder
Every wound is wonder
Peace beyond the valley
Into the grand finale

Ooh-ooh, open your eyes
Ooh-ooh, while you got time

Into the arms of autumn
All the noise forgotten
No longer is she rattled
Ready for the battle

When winter comes to undress
I'll welcome in the new guest
I really tried my best
To leave you something good
