

Battle the turnpike
In through the film light
At war with the moon

Tim sleeps through the FM
Lightly dreaming with an ink pen
Halfway in his hand

Johnny wakes from the truck buzz
Wearily fallin' out of love
With seein' anything new

I feel it too, except all of the time, I'm cryin' in the rearvi
ew
I ain't someone you want around you
Often do I use my feelings to paint my mood
Yeah I get sidetracked
I ain't someone you can count on to have your back
At least not the way you'd want me to
At least not the way you would want me to

Fell asleep on the drive back
With Bugsy steerin, tryin' to make us laugh
To keep us all awake

In the backseat in a raincoat
Lulled by the engine and the shadows
Always movin' to my right

Do you feel it too?
Like you're the only one tryin' to level with your own blues?
I'm tryin' to be on your page
But I'm the only one who always tends to feel this way
If you love me you'll give me a break, won't you?
If you love me you'll give me a break, won't you?
If you love me you'll give me a break, won't you?
If you love me you'll give me a break, won't you?
