

Rebound

courtship.

Gotta tell you that it don't feel right
Not to mention that you're not my type
My baby left me and it ruined my life
And I need distraction for just one night
Put my head down
Catch a rebound
Make the dark cloud darker and darker baby
Got my score now
Even somehow
I still lost bigger than ever baby

Put on a show
But baby I know
This will never ever ever make me feel better

You can make me forget
Maybe just for a second
You can make me forget
But this is never ever ever gonna be that real love

Gotta tell you that it don't feel good
To do the deed when you know you should not
It's understandable and understood
We're only animals that want the goods

Put my head down
Catch a rebound
Make the dark cloud darker and darker baby
Got my score now
Even somehow
I still lost bigger than ever baby

Put on a show
But baby I know
This will never ever ever make me feel better
You can make me forget
Maybe just for a second
You can make me forget
But this is never ever ever gonna be that real love

Gotta tell you that it don't feel right
Not to mention that you're not my type
