

Jump Out The Phone

Cousin Stizz

On them lonely late nights, I'm gon' call you (Call you, call you, call you, yeah)
You say go, for sure, you know I fall through (Fall through, fall through, fall through)
Girl, it's way too cold to be sittin' here alone
I would jump out through this phone to you (Woah, woah, woah)
So on these lonely late nights, I'm gon' call you (Call you, call you, call you, yeah)

Ayy, so stay by the phone
And never leave me 'lone
Tryna find a way
When I'm away from home
You mad when I'm gone
That lil' mouth gon' get that ass in trouble
But I still love you (Yeah), that's why I hug you (Real love)
As time bubble, you prove that I can trust you
You know how I hustle, I pop shit without amuzzle
Had to come clean, me and you, crib with acres, that's a dream
So be like my rib when it get hard to breathe, by any means

On them lonely late nights, I'm gon' call you (Call you, call you, call you, yeah)
You say go, for sure, you know I fall through (Fall through, fall through, fall through)
Girl, it's way too cold to be sittin' here alone
I would jump out through this phone to you (Woah, woah, woah)
So on these lonely late nights, I'm gon' call you (Call you, call you, call you, yeah)

Yeah, star studded every trip, but we act like it's nothin'
All these niggas bluffin', we the ones who really up on somethin'
Diamonds flooded
I put you in some gold 'cause you my nugget
My life on the line for mine
Don't lie to me, that's really thuggin'
What I'm cut with, that ain't come with
I knew that in the first place
Where I started cold, we made the best out the worst place
I'ma switch your life
Ride with me wrong or right
I'm tryna reach the stars and everything alike
But what is life without you?

On them lonely late nights, I'm gon' call you (Call you, call you, call you, yeah)
You say go, for sure, you know I fall through (Fall through, fall through, fall through)
Girl, it's way too cold to be sittin' here alone
I would jump out through this phone to you (Woah, woah, woah)
So on these lonely late nights, I'm gon' call you, yeah (Call you, call you, call you, yeah)

You've been on my mind, on my mind (You've been on my mind)
Let's not waste no time, waste no time
You the only one that I need at this hour
I'ma be there in five, you gon' be in a towel, girl
You've been on my mind, on my mind, oh, yeah
