

RIP Bro

Cousin Stizz

Aye

Damn I love you twin
All the time we spend
What did we lose what did we win
Damn I love you twin
Now we making ends
Paid our dues on the rent
See you in a Benz
Damn I love you twin
I remember when
We was on the bench
Now we look at M's

All this whole shit spiraled from a pad and a paper
I told the bitch that Imma see you later
My whole team up I'm a maker (gettin' to the bread)
I'm on this yellow cup my plug a laker
I'm with the bro I'm vibin' it
Never thought these risks ever show a different side of it
I can't see me lost in the light of it

Damn I love you twin
All the time we spend
Lose or we win
Now we making ends
Damn I love you twin
We beginning to the end
Beginning to the end
Damn I love you twin
What did we lose what did we win
Real all stars
We be setting all the trends
Aye

I make extraordinary structure
You knew what I was on I do this shit for the love
But when I seen that phone bro I didn't trust it
Don't matter who was in it nipped us all in the butt
But we still movin' like the trains and the truckers
Trust me I can't stop until my people luxury
When it comes to y'all you know I still don't give a fuck
No fucks meaning Imma be right there when it get crunchy
Flyest when I look like them buys always shook right
Wake up and it's fenced on you right?
Brody make it rain from the tool right?
Then she show up late in the nude right?

I love you twin
I love you twin
Time we would spend beginning to end
I love you twin now we out making ends
You was right there too had to jump the fence
I love you twin
Cause you was right there too way before the fans
Beginning to the end had to make the rent
Shit I love you twin

All my boys my twins all my boys my kin
I do it for my family too out here for da kid
I love you twin
