Cousin Stizz

Yeah

Meet me by the crib, and keep it running, you know? (Yeah)
My folks tripping, we can't keep this shit at my home (Keep this shit at my home)
Push it to the limit, living it, and this all I know (This all I know)
My hand dealt, wasn't chose, let's get rich, I suppose

Who gon' ride? I'ma roll
Who gon' ride? I'ma roll
Who gon' ride? I'ma roll
Who gon' ride? I'ma roll
Who gon' ride? I'ma roll
Who gon' ride? I'ma roll
Who gon' ride? I'ma roll
Who gon' ride? I'ma roll, ayy

Understand, just a mortal man (Yeah)
God-level weight put on my shoulders, I grew up and got colder
Memories stuck in my cup, nah, I ain't sober
Keep my eyes stuck, niggas strike you like a cobra
Bagging up grams, school of hard knocks, who enrolled us?
I ain't have a plan, just want to be the man
Loyalty mean more than anything to me, it runneth over
Lawyers told my bro to tell, he wouldn't turn us over (No)
Come to the window when you roll up
J-Dawg got the stick like he got next on the controller
Stand-up guys I rep, gotta handle mine, yes
I was broke, stomach hurt, can't sleep, I'm eating stress
Heard my partner died, man, I can't digest pain in my chest
Struggle hard, found out ain't no wrong answers, life a test
We gon' be alright, even when this shit be lookin' left
Had to roll the dice, if my bro gon' ride, then it's a bet
Blowing all these problems through a blunt
Nightcrawl the plays, daydreaming 'bout everything I want
I can't trust too much
Got crossed more than once, ain't know enough
But I been the same back then, and I still ain't letting up, yup

Meet me by the crib, and keep it running, you know? (Know)

Head to the sky
Uphill battle from here, but we all know you gotta climb far
Don't move uncertain even though the times are

Tryna find your next thrill never meant so much
Young dumb fun, never lost touch
