

Switch Places

Cousin Stizz

Oh you see me shinin', make you wanna switch places
We turn up, get money, hop in foreigners, switch places
They ain't giving nothin' so of course we gon' take shit
All this yellow on me, man my jewelry racist
And my bitch she a queen, she pull up in that new spaceship
Everything is real life over here, we can't fake it
Yeah
If they hate, it's motivation
Oh you see me shinin', make you wanna switch places

I'm fresh out the jungle, baby I'ma go apeshit
All this Rambo camo, spent the bands all on Bape shit
Most my dogs on headshots, dig it, give them boys facelifts
Stunt so hard I make a critic wanna switch places
Break up some killa, my lungs I'ma fill up
Until a young nigga look Asian
I'm that nigga, count my scrilla, play the cut, razor
My bro traumatized and quick to fire on strangers
If that bitch a dime, like T.I. then I'll take her
I'ma pull up with the flavors
Purple yellow, Lakers
You be switchin' sides, we know you the point shaver
Do for me the team and the fam don't need favors
Cut from different cloths, we don't know the same tailor

Oh you see me shinin', make you wanna switch places
We turn up, get money, hop in foreigners, switch places
They ain't giving nothin' so of course we gon' take shit
All this yellow on me, man my jewelry racist
And my bitch she a queen, she pull up in that new spaceship
Everything is real life over here, we can't fake it
Yeah
If they hate, it's motivation
Oh you see me shinin', make you wanna switch places

Out in the park I got put on to everything (everything)
When you walkin', do you leave behind a legacy?
I can look into your eyes and see the jealousy
But all that's tellin' me is I should be a better me
Fuck niggas rushin' to show off, but that was never me
I know patience always pays off somethin' heavenly
Watch you vibin', they gon' take that energy (ayy)
So I can't buy into these lies these niggas sellin' me

Oh you see me shinin', make you wanna switch places
We turn up, get money, hop in foreigners, switch places
They ain't giving nothin' so of course we gon' take shit
All this yellow on me, man my jewelry racist
And my bitch she a queen, she pull up in that new spaceship
Everything is real life over here, we can't fake it
Yeah
If they hate, it's motivation
Oh you see me shinin', make you wanna switch places
