Lightbringer

Covenant

Bring the light Burn the sky Torch our lives Break it all into parts Bring the light Breathe without your lungs It digs deep underneath this skin Could you tell me how it ends and begins Could I kiss those scarlet lips of yours And taste the winter Taste the winter When I shed my December skin Where do we go from here I turn around and wait for more Where do we go from here I'm taking you with me Bring the light Burn the sky Torch our lives Break it all into parts Bring the light Burn the sky Torch our lives Break it all into parts Bring the light Burn the sky Torch our lives Break it all into parts Bring the light Burn the sky Torch our lives Break it all into parts For the final resolution Where we vow our parts To burn forever To live forever Taste without your tongue Lick your wounds And kill the creeps Could you tell me how it ends and begins Tonight I like you even more Take my picture When I shed my December skin Where do we go from here

I turn around and wait for more

Where do we go from here I'm taking you with me Pull me up Fire in my footsteps Peace in my mind Broken rhythms, broken bodies Broken minds, broken hearts We are going to burn this house to the ground I want to hold on to this feeling I want to hold my breath just for a little while Just for a little while Bring the light Burn the sky Torch our lives Break it all into parts Bring the light Burn the sky Torch our lives Break it all into parts Bring the light Burn the sky Torch our lives Break it all into parts Bring the light Burn the sky Torch our lives Break it all into parts Where do we go from here I turn around and wait for more Where do we go from here I'm taking you with me Pull me up Pull me up.... I am taking you with me
