Covey

Learning as I go
Seems that I'm making
Just a mess on the floor
I've messed up my chance at this
Now I wish I could see you more
I'm asking myself
If my chances rest in fear
I'm hoping for the best
But I know I should take the wheel

This side of you resides
To leave what we knew
As you will proceed to
Teach me all I know
I'll leave you alone
Please see
I want to force my demons out
