

Twitching Heart

Covey

Twitching heart
Tell me the truth
Tell me I'm done for and this
Broken body's begging for a clue
Twitching heart
Let's lose ourself in static on the television
'Cause I'm living with insanity through repetition
I'm pretty certain I'm a guaranteed catastrophe
Twitching heart

I need you to keep it together
'Cause I don't plan on going sober
I can't control it as I get older
So is it too late to say
I only learn the hard way
Like taking hits from elite four's pocket monsters
Leaving me with the darkest perspective
From a black, red, and blue
Twitching heart

This is done and overdue
I'll give my body back to you
And your thoughts will soak my skin
And slowly take me home

Better luck next time
Better luck
We'll have better luck next time
Better luck (Better luck)
We'll have better luck next time
Better luck (Better luck)
We'll have better luck next time
Better luck (Better luck)

I guess we end this on a broken note
Like karaoke at the bar that night
When we found comfort in the choked out lights
And carpet floor
That called itself our home
You said I live in either black or white
And that you've never seen me satisfied
I guess I find it hard to see the joy
In the simple things
Like the feeling of breaking down
Or the fact that I'm still around

(Fractured brain)
Sometimes you drown with loved ones there to watch
(You can't catch a break)

(When you're bending backwards)
'Cause this could be my funeral home
(Lego Charmander)
Twitching heart
(You've got nothing on, you've got nothing on me)
Let's lose ourself in static on the television
(You've got nothing on, you've got nothing on me)
'Cause this is just insanity through repetition
(You've got nothing on, you've got nothing on me)
I'm pretty certain I'm a guaranteed catastrophe
(You've got nothing on, you've got nothing on me)

We'll have better luck next time
Better luck
We'll have better luck next time
Better luck (better luck)
We'll have better luck next time
Better luck (better luck)
We'll have better luck next time
Better luck (better luck)
We'll have better luck next time
