Gold summer wheat
It sways in the breeze
'Til it fades in the Autumn
To brown

Cool summer grass
It beckons and calls
And I lie here with you
In my heart

I can't forget you I can't forget you I can't forget you At all

Birds take to the sky They never aligned They circle around Forever

Now I tried but I failed To hide and disguise This one simple sentiment

I can't forget you I can't forget you I can't forget you No, no

I can't forget you
I can't forget you
I can't forget you
At all
No, no
