

Wedding Day

Cracker

The devil will send demons to fly around your wedding day
Yeah, the devil will send demons to fly around your wedding day

Don't send no invitation, I don't have much to say

Well, I heard about your man, and I will laugh at him sometime
Yeah, I heard about your man, and I will laugh at him sometime
Cuz I can see his sad day coming when your lies will burn him blind

Well, I'm standing in the churchyard, standing here without a sound

Yeah, I'm standing in the churchyard, standing here without a sound

Wishing I'd been born the kind of man could go in and shoot you down

The devil will send demons to fly around your wedding day
Yeah, the devil will send demons to fly around your wedding day

Well they'll strike you down at midnight, and a-carry me away
