

Leave My Shadow

Craft Spells

Dead again
I let these feelings come up again
An evening alone, I slowly chase your love away
Like a flood, I tear through you
And drain the blood
An evening alone, I slowly wash your love away

Oh, I never wanted you to know
This end, it was hardly so
The countless times I tried before to leave my shadow
Oh I never wanted you to know
This end, it was hardly so
The countless times I tried before to leave my shadow

By the end
You're dried up and bear by the wind
An evening alone, you slowly keep your love at bay
This will mark the death of my hideous attempt
Of keeping you close meant for it to finally come my way

Oh, I never wanted you to know
This end, it was hardly so
The countless times I tried before to leave my shadow
Oh I never wanted you to know
This end, it was hardly so
The countless times I tried before to leave my shadow

To leave my shadow
To leave my shadow
To leave my shadow
To leave my shadow
