

You Should Close The Door

Craft Spells

i feel the need to go and distance is the goal if memory serves me right i've done this before i used to close the door when everything went wrong you don't need to call i ignore everyone nothing against you but you dragged me for too long too long

this is me in my sorrow this is me at eighteen this is me at my greatest all my friends begin to weep
