

White Noise

Craft

Let's all endure the human experience.
Distasteful, tiresome thing.
Let's regress. Let's obsess. Let's sit back and let us all be useless instead.
Let's pretend to forge some worthwhile bonds. Come on, let's lie to ourselves!
Fuck you, I'll waste no time on you - you're insignificant, I can already tell.
Let's build some mental prison cells. Let's not risk getting out.
We wouldn't want to have to face ourselves, and there's a whole lot of empty about.
Mighty strokes fell microscopic oaks, so what's the point in trying to excel?
I despise all of you - I'm in some tedious level of hell.
Meaningless points dressed in pointless words - Don't let a lack of ideas hold you back.
Let's pay attention to what other people do, and let them know how it's offensive to you.
Let's ignore what testimony show, let every dumb idea grow.
Your world is not important to me. I couldn't care any less about you.
Drowning in a sea of white noise!
