

Never Mine

Craig Campbell

It ain't no surprise I ain't heard from you
Did you make it to California or get high in Crested Butte?
You were always headed for somewhere new
I know you're out there doing what you do

Nevermind, we couldn't leave each other alone
Couldn't take our hands off each other
Nevermind that we were right where we belonged
Every day of that sugar-sent summer
You were always gonna say goodbye
A gypsy born to fly
Nevermind that I was all yours
You were never mine

No, I ain't mad, it is what it is
I'd do it all again with someone who knows how to live
On the edge of a hot wire, ain't nothing I wouldn't give
For just one more low tide moonlight kiss

Nevermind, we couldn't leave each other alone
Couldn't take our hands off each other
Nevermind that we were right where we belonged
Every day of that sugar-sent summer
You were always gonna say goodbye
A gypsy born to fly
Nevermind that I was all yours
You were never mine, no

Nevermind, we couldn't leave each other alone
Couldn't take our hands off each other
Nevermind that we were right where we belonged
Every day of that sugar-sent summer
You were always gonna say goodbye
A gypsy born to fly
Nevermind that I was all yours
You were never mine
Yeah, I finally realized
You were never mine

No, you were never mine
