

Everybody

Craig Cardiff

Everybodys always leaving, everybodys always coming back
Everybody goes on at length about how much this place lacks
Everyone hates paying cover, everybody drinks the same beer
Everybody goes on at length about getting out of here
Look at you there wearing your hair shirt
Mucking around in other peoples dirt
I wish for once youd look at yourself and
Then you would see that youre like everybody else

Everyone plays the fat fish wearing the small pond
Everybody talks about themselves at length on and on an on
Everyone hates paying cover everybody drinks the same beer
Everybody goes on at length about getting out of here
Look at you there wearing your hair shirt
Mucking around in other peoples dirt
I which for once youd look at yourself and
Then you would see that youre like everybody else
