

Fire,Fire,Fire

Craig Cardiff

(Fire) x5
(Rain) x5
A year of no words, have been breaking
Sometimes, bad news wakes you up
And you hold your heart, oh you hold your heart
Wide open
In the hopes that holding it open
Will be enough
And I was thinking of how the heat comes
What fire eats
How smoke fills the eyes
How it's the last to leave
I was thinking of how, trouble comes
Trouble comes, I always leave
(Fire) x5
(Rain) x5
I said do you miss him
She said it's terrible
Some aches are too big for words
So you feel your way
Through the darkness

Find a way to make friends with her
And I was thinking of how the heat comes
What fire eats
How smoke fills the eyes
How it's the last to leave
How the stars fell from the sky
I was, I was
(Fire) x5
(Rain) x5
And a year of no words, have been breaking
Sometimes bad news wakes you up
And I was thinking of how the heat comes
What fire eats
How smoke fills the eyes
How it's the last to leave
Oh and how all the stars from the sky fell
Fell from
I was
(Fire) x5
(Rain) x5
