One month down; two more months in I can't wait to see you again I'm going to hold you so tight Until your heart's unbroken

Some of us got lost; some got found Mortgaged, car'd, kids, on the edge of town Tell me what happened to the fireworks and Promises spoken?

All my friends are someplace else I'm out here by myself Leave the porchlight on and Your heart wide open

I went for a walk where I grew up slow Hoping to see a face I'd know I walked for hours And didn't meet a soul

I'm tired of other people's bathrooms
And other people's beds
Some of us stayed; most of us fled
From this life
It can leave you a little bent and broken

I threw myself out into the world And the world she received me And landed me safe in Safe into the nest of you

All my friends are someplace else
I'm out here by myself
Leave the porchlight on and your heart wide open
