

Looking at my watch, it's about that time
She been on her grind since half past nine
She always stay calm, it's easier said than done
Especially with the way I be moving

I be in and outta different area codes, every day different shows
And you know (how the ting goes)
Even when her days up, girl you're still my favorite
And I know she knows

Don't have to worry about dinner plans
I already booked things in advance
'Cause I know that my girl understands
She knows, she knows I'm all in (oh yeah)

This type of loving, it's so contagious
That's why nothing ain't ever gon' come between us
See the thing with my girl, she don't ask twenty-one questions
I know your friends, they be talking real tough
But baby, you keep it cool and I call that real love
See the thing with my girl, she don't ask twenty-one questions

Yo, I ain't gotta talk much 'cause she knows
She don't like it when I'm out late and she's home
And now she taking shots like it's free throw
But she knows, she knows, she knows, she knows
She knows I been tryna make the Ps grow
Back then it was astros and some chinos
She knows I was waiting till the Ps flowed
Always geared up I don't never need a reload
Never need a reload, she knows
When I'm hanging with my people, and she knows
When I'm flying outta Heathrow
She knows, she knows

Don't have to worry about dinner plans
I already booked things in advance
'Cause I know that my girl understands
She knows, she knows I'm all in (oh yeah)

This type of loving, it's so contagious
That's why nothing ain't ever gon' come between us
See the thing with my girl, she don't ask twenty-one questions
I know your friends, they be talking real tough
But baby, you keep it cool and I call that real love
See the thing with my girl, she don't ask twenty-one questions

'Cause you know our love is bullet proof
Different kinda loving between me and you
Anything you need, you know I got you too
You ain't gotta lose sleep, you can always count on me
Baby girl, that's the truth, 'cause you keep it cool, girl
You don't make me choose
You know what you want, you ain't gotta ask
Twenty-one questions (twenty-one questions)

This type of loving, it's so contagious

That's why nothing ain't ever gon' come between us
See the thing with my girl, she don't ask twenty-one questions
I know your friends, they be talking real tough
But baby, you keep it cool and I call that real love
See the thing with my girl, she don't ask twenty-one questions
This type of loving, it's so contagious
That's why nothing ain't ever gon' come between us
See the thing with my girl, she don't ask twenty-one questions
I know your friends, they be talking real tough
But baby, you keep it cool and I call that real love
See the thing with my girl, she don't ask twenty-one questions

That's why you're my baby
Don't give me twenty-one
Fall out, make up
There ain't no twenty-one questions
