

Focus

Craig David

I want you to know
I'm wasting your time
Don't wanna throw
In all the way without trying
You've seen my face
And you can tell that I'm sure
Don't wanna be
Without you anymore

I'm throwing all my things away
Let's take a pen and write it
I'm down for you, go sided
And even if you're miles away
I want you to know that I'm

Giving you all of my focus
Giving you (giving you)
All of my focus
Giving you (giving you)
All of my focus
Giving you (giving you)
All of my focus
Giving you all of my focus

You know I appreciate it
No need to be
So complicated
How bad would you
Let's get creative
You know the deal
You know I'm dedicated

I'm throwing all my things away
Let's take a pen and write it
I'm down for you, go sided
And even if you're miles away
I want you to know that I'm

Giving you all of my focus
Giving you (giving you)
All of my focus
Giving you (giving you)
All of my focus
Giving you (giving you)
All of my focus
Giving you all of my focus
All of my focus
Giving you (giving you)
All of my focus
Giving you (giving you)
All of my focus
Giving you (giving you)
All of my focus
Giving you all of my focus

One too many times
I lost something amazing

Too scared I get delaying
One too many times
But now I know I'm ready
To give you all of my focus

Said I'm giving you all of my focus
Giving you (giving you)
All of my focus
Giving you (giving you)
All of my focus
Giving you (giving you)
All of my focus
Giving you all of my focus
All of my focus
Giving you (giving you)
All of my focus
Giving you (giving you)
All of my focus
Giving you (giving you)
All of my focus
Giving you all of my focus
