

Just My Imagination

Craig David

Imagine, imagine
Hey hey, oh

You put your hand on my hand
And you lead me to dance on the floor
It was like we were both in a trace, like it felt
Something more than you could disguise
But behind your smile
There was fear in your eyes

Did someone hurt you?
Did they break your heart?
Are the wounds still fresh?
Do you heal the scars?
Cause I just turn around
And you disappeared, oh
Were you even here?

Or was it my imagination?
So real I can't believe this wasn't true
Or was it my imagination?
It put me in a time or place with you

Tell me girl what you are you running from (running from, running from)
I can't help wondering where you've gone
{where you've gone, where you've gone)
I think it maybe I got it wrong
(got it wrong, got it wrong)
God damn I should have known that
You were just a fantasy
Was it my imagination?

Though I tried my best
I still couldn't forget
So I drive every night
Past the spot where we met
And I hope one day
That I'll see your face
But you're never here

Or was it my imagination?
So real I can't believe this wasn't true
Or was it my imagination?
It put me in a time or place with you

Tell me girl what you are you running from (running from, running from)
I can't help wondering where you've gone
{where you've gone, where you've gone)
I think it maybe I got it wrong
(got it wrong, got it wrong)
God damn I should have known that
You were just a fantasy
Was it my imagination?

Imagine, you and me together

And a love that will last forever
Imagine, that it's late december
Been a year but i still remember
Imagine, meeting you meant to much to me
Imagine, oh no

Or was it my imagination?
So real i can't believe this wasn't true
Or was it my imagination?
It put me in a time or place with you

Tell me girl what you are you running from (running from, running from)
I can't help wondering where you've gone
{where you've gone, where you've gone)
I think it maybe i got it wrong
(got it wrong, got it wrong)
God damn i should have known that
You were just a fantasy
Was it my imagination?
