

Love Will Come Around

Craig David

You know that I got
A couple months out on tour
Wish I could see your face more
But that's what FaceTime is for
I know your girls have been saying
I'm a waste of time (oh yeah)
But you ain't been around a guy
With a heart like mine (no way)

I remember the day
When I fell in love with you
Any troubles you had
Side by side see them through

I'll fight for your love
Promise we won't hit the ground
Don't you worry now baby
Cause you know love will come around
Cause you know love will come around
Cause you know love will come around
Slowly slowly slowly slowly, yeah yeah
Don't you worry now baby
Cause you know love will come around

You know that you got
To let this story play out
Relax and hold this thing down
Promise I won't let you down
We got the juice and I can't deny
That's why I am with you
This ain't some goodbye
Stronger than ever
We can't divide
We can't divide

I remember the day
When I fell in love with you
Any troubles you had
Side by side see them through

I'll fight for your love
Promise we won't hit the ground
Don't you worry now babe
Cause you know love will come around
Cause you know love will come around
Cause you know love will come around
Slowly slowly slowly slowly, yeah yeah
Don't you worry now babe
Cause you know love will come around

A love like yours is hard to combat (oh yeah)
And everyday with you feels like it's July (ooh)
Sun comes out when you're around
And when I'm back on tour
I'll let you know when I touchdown

I remember the day

When I fell in love with you
Any troubles you had
Side by side see them through

I'll fight for your love
Promise we won't hit the ground
Don't you worry now babe
Cause you know love will come around
Cause you know love will come around
Cause you know love will come around
Slowly slowly slowly slowly, yeah yeah
Don't you worry now babe
Cause you know love will come around
Cause you know love will come around
Cause you know love will come around
Slowly slowly slowly slowly, yeah yeah
Don't you worry now babe
Cause you know love will come around
