

Mr Right

Craig David

Said, you've been down this road before
Many times in your life
You've been promised the world
But that world was a lie
The memories don't fade
They just play with your mind
Better quit that stop, go back, rewind
I'm never gonna be that one
Keep comparing me to what they've done
Baby, leave 'em, leave 'em where they came from
But you'll never know until you let go

I'm the light that's shining brightly in your eyes
You don't see it yet, but girl, I'll make your tears run dry
See, I know that you've been through it
You've got the battle scars to prove it
No more Mr. Wrong
If you trust me, you will find that I'm
Mr. Right

What do you want, what do you want?
It to break you?
What do you want, what do you want?
You gotta let it go
Mr. Right
What do you want, what do you want?
Find a way to
Wave Mr. Wrong goodbye
Mr. Right
What do you want, what do you want?
I can show you
What do you want, what do you want?
Gotta let me know
Mr. Right
What do you want, what do you want?
Don't be afraid you've
Finally found Mr. Right

No, if love is what you need, then I got what you want
And if you stick with me, you'll never be on your own
So don't you be afraid to dive in, my wave you be riding
So strong
Catch me now before I'm gone

I'm never gonna be that one
Keep comparing me to what they've done
Baby, leave 'em, leave 'em where they came from
This ain't like before, I'm letting you know
I'm the light that's shining brightly in your eyes
You don't see it yet, but girl, I'll make your tears run dry
See, I know that you've been through it
You've got the battle scars to prove it
No more Mr. Wrong
If you trust me, you will find that I'm
Mr. Right

What do you want, what do you want?

It to break you?
What do you want, what do you want?
You gotta let it go
Mr. Right
What do you want, what do you want?
Find a way to
Wave Mr. Wrong goodbye
Mr. Right
What do you want, what do you want?
I can show you
What do you want, what do you want?
Gotta let me know
Mr. Right
What do you want, what do you want?
Don't be afraid you've
Finally found Mr. Right

What do you want, what do you want?
There's something that you should know
What do you want, what do you want?
I know you've been here before
What do you want, what do you want?
I'll never let you go
Say Mr. Wrong goodbye
What do you want, what do you want?
There's something that you should know
What do you want, what do you want?
I know you've been here before
What do you want, what do you want?
I'll never let you go
Finally found Mr. Right

Said you've been down this road before, many times in your life
Say goodbye to Mr. Wrong
Now you've got
Mr. Right
