

Rain

Craig David

Telephone talking for hours
Lately the silence got louder
Now when I call I can't even get through, yeah
Feels like we're losing each other
And I don't think we can recover
Know that you're feeling some type of way too, yeah

You don't have to say it
'Cause I already know
Things ain't the same
But I thought it would blow over
Thought we could patch it up
Guess I was wrong, end of the day
I gotta move on, mhm

Thought I found the words to say
Played it in my head a million times
Now we're standing face to face
It's so much harder looking in your eyes
Whole world might change
As soon we go our separate ways
Blue skies turn grey
Now all I see on my window pane
Is rain, rain
Rain, rain

Last night I ran in to your mother
That's what's making this tougher
She told me that I turned your house to a home again
All of my mates say don't bother
And I should just go find another
They tell me it's over and I should quit hoping

You don't have to say it
'Cause I already know
Things ain't the same
But I thought it would blow over
Thought we could patch it up
Guess I was wrong, end of the day
I gotta move on, mhm

Thought I found the words to say
Played it in my head a million times
Now we're standing face to face
It's so much harder looking in your eyes
Whole world might change
As soon we go our separate ways
Blue skies turn grey
Now all I see on my window pane
Is rain, rain
Rain, rain

My heart don't feel no better
Underneath this umbrella, rain
My heart don't feel no better
I don't want this stormy weather to stay

Thought I found the words to say
Played it in my head a million times
Now we're standing face to face
It's so much harder looking in your eyes
Whole world might change
As soon we go our separate ways
Blue skies turn grey
Now all I see on my window pane
Is rain, rain
Rain, rain

My heart don't feel no better
Underneath this umbrella, rain
