

Spotlight

Craig David

Feel like you're running on empty
But you got a choice
Stop now and say it's over
Or listen to the voice
That says that you're gonna win
And no, you're not insane
Even if it seems
Like you're chasing the wind
They say that you're a dreamer
Then let it be known
Just because you're a believer
Standing on your own
A Maverick with a plan
Which they don't understand
All they say is you can
But you know you

Got what it takes and
You know what it feels like
When your fire is burning
Even if no one knows your name
But they're gonna know it now

Oh, no no

Don't worry about tomorrow
It's another day
Excuses are getting old now
So live for today
'Cause yes, this is your moment
There's no more time to waste
Don't need to be afraid
And you know you

Got what it takes and
You know what it feels like
When your fire is burning
Even if no one knows your name
But they're gonna know it now

I know there's a fear deep inside
Remember tonight is your night
'Cause you're in the Spotlight
Yes, you're in the Spotlight,
Don't hold back the tears,
Let them go
Open your eyes and you'll know
'Cause you're in the Spotlight
Yes, you're in the Spotlight

You've been through it all
The times you cried the times it felt impossible
Won't you stand up and let the world hear your voice

I know there's a fear deep inside
Remember tonight is your night
'Cause you're in the Spotlight

Yes, you're in the Spotlight,
Don't hold back the tears,
Let them go (just let them go)
Open your eyes and you'll know
'Cause you're in the Spotlight
Yes, you're in the Spotlight

Ooh, no.
