

lost without u

Craig Xen

Huh, lost without you
I don't ever wanna get caught without you
Writing in the windows
Hoping, I'm hoping, ah

Yeah, huh, ay, lost without you
I don't ever wanna get caught without you
Writing in the windows
Yeah, hopin'

Yeah, sayin'

Lost without you
I don't ever wanna get caught without you
Writing in the windows
Hoping, I'm hoping the feeling never ends
And I get, I get a chance just to talk about you

Ah, new man now
I was down and you lended a hand
How could I be the one to leave
When I needed you to free me
From the evil that my people do
And now I got a street that'll bear fruit

Truth be told
'Cause the lies get old
And you know they turn bitter
Really, I just figure
That there gotta be a picture bigger
Than the image I was livin' in, it's a figment, innit?

Tryna get it right
Yeah, you been on my mind
In my head at night
Yeah, I was in a blind, I was heavily denied
Everything is said that I'm now on a greener side
Now, I'm livin' life
